Business Resiliency Today, Tomorrow and Beyond

DRJ Presents Our 53rd Conference — www.drj.com/fallworld
Build Your Industry Connections
The stronger the industry connections you have — the stronger your knowledge and resources. At DRJ Fall World 2015, we want to connect you with your peers and leaders, innovators and experts in business continuity.

Take advantage of the packed Exhibit Hall where you can see the latest products and innovations in business continuity.

Focused and Specialized Learning
We make it easy for you to network and connect with those who can help you expand your knowledge and bring further expertise to your organization. The Sunday evening Welcome Reception and Monday Night Hospitality give you a chance to mingle, relax and to make some lasting contacts.

All attendees of DRJ Fall World 2015 enjoy six complimentary networking meals — giving you a chance to relax between sessions and interact with your peers.

Business Resiliency Today, Tomorrow and Beyond
Welcome to DRJ Fall World 2015 — the premier business continuity conference in the world. We bring together the best in business continuity education, technology, and research to give you three packed days of learning and networking.

We can’t predict the future but with comprehensive business continuity planning and knowledge we can equip you to be ready and prepared. DRJ Fall World 2015 is focused on giving you the best possible business continuity education and connections that matter.

DRJ is your leader in all things business continuity — we’re backed with more than 25 years of real industry experience and knowledge.

More than certification

The World’s Leading Institute for Business Continuity and Resilience

Established in 1994, the BCI has established itself as the leading membership and certifying organization for Business Continuity (BC) and Resilience professionals worldwide. With circa 8,000 members in more than 100 countries, working in an estimated 3,000 organizations in private, public and third sectors, the BCI truly is the world’s leading institute in this industry. The BCI stands for excellence in the business continuity profession and its certified grades provide assurance of technical and professional competence in BC. The BCI offers a wide range of resources for business continuity professionals concerned with raising levels of resilience within their organization or considering a career in business continuity.

Successful accreditation by the BCI leads to an internationally recognized post-nominal designation or certification membership grade that provides global assurance of technical and professional competence.

BCI Membership offers many opportunities, face to face and online, including a wide range of tools and resources, for the development of professionals currently working in this growing industry or who are considering embarking on a career in it – these benefits include CPD and mentoring.

To find the full list of member benefits visit www.thebci.org

To become a BCI member you must first pass the Certificate of the BCI (CBCI)*

For more information visit www.thebci.org or contact membership@thebci.org

Corporate Partnership

The BCI Corporate Partnership enables organizations to work more closely with the BCI to help raise the profile of BC as a discipline and to promote the highest standards of professional competence in BC in organizations worldwide. The BCI Corporate Partnership has been in operation since 2007 and currently has over 125 Corporate Partners across the globe. The BCI Corporate Partnership is based on a subscription model and offers its Partners a wide range of financial and other value-add benefits, including some excellent sponsorship opportunities. There are levels available to suit any size organization. For more information contact partnership@thebci.org

Chapters & Forums

The BCI has Chapters & Forums in countries or regions where there is a large community of BCI members helping to ensure that the professional needs of current and future BCI members across the world are both voiced and met. Each BCI Chapter has its own Chapter Board, comprising locally elected officers, who are tasked with representing the BCI in their region. BCI Forums are organized on a more local level by members. Visit www.thebci.org for more information.

Training & Education

The BCI offers world-class, award winning education services, delivered in partnership with BCI licensed Training Partners and Approved BCI Instructors located around the globe. All our instructors are highly experienced business professionals in the continuity and resilience discipline, bringing a wealth of expertise to enhance the learning experience.

There are BCI training courses to cater for all levels of experience, for both individuals and organizations, from entry-level awareness training, for those seeking certification or a qualification, to advanced or in depth courses for executives and experienced professionals looking to continue their professional development. Our courses are offered as a range of classroom courses, eLearning and live interactive distance learning, individuals can also self-study and take the Certificate of the BCI (CBCI) Examination.

The BCI Diploma (DBCII) is offered in partnership with Buckinghamshire New University and is a higher level distance learning course with a more academic focus and as well as achieving the DDBCII credential the course carries academic credits.

For more information visit the Training & Education area of the website or contact education@thebci.org

Thought Leadership & Research

The BCI seeks to promote and facilitate the adoption of good practice by driving global thought leadership for business continuity and resilience. The BCI conducts research and publishes reports and white papers on key subject matters such as supply chain, emergency communications and horizon scanning.

The BCI has also set up a number of think tanks around the world to gauge thoughts and opinions of regional experts. Visit www.thebci.org for more information.

Events & Awards

The BCI holds a variety of events around the world in partnership with our Chapters and Forums with the main event being the BCI World Conference and Exhibition in London, UK. BCI World attracts over 1,000 delegates, visitors and exhibitors from around the world for one of the largest gatherings of BC and resilience professionals globally.

Our BCI Awards are held regionally to recognize the outstanding achievements in the business continuity and resilience industry. Each winner from the regional awards is entered into the Global Awards which are celebrated in a Gala Dinner and ceremony at the annual BCI World Conference and Exhibition. For more information and to find out about our BCI Hall of Fame, please visit our website or contact events@thebci.org or awards@thebci.org
